

Registration for Jamboree Troop Popcorn Sale—Rocky Mountain Council
YEAR 2009

Scout _____, Unit Type/# _____, and the Rocky Mountain Council, BSA agree to enter a contract to sell Trails-end popcorn to attend the 2010 National Scout Jamboree.

The terms are as follows:

1. Popcorn will be sold during the regular popcorn sale(s) of the Rocky Mountain Council. Any other times have to be agreed to in writing by the Scout Executive and the National Jamboree Committee Chairman in advance of the sale.
2. The Jamboree Scout will receive credit for 50% of his popcorn sales amount. No prizes will be earned except those given by the popcorn company at no cost to the Council or unit.
3. All credits will be administered by the Rocky Mountain Council until disbursements are made.
4. All disbursements will be for Jamboree fees to National, Jamboree tour fees, required uniform costs, and other fees deemed necessary by the Council Jamboree Committee. The only other approved disbursement is the unit's popcorn profit goal for that Scout.
5. The Scout's Unit Leader signs this contract to show approval and will write at the bottom of the contract the unit's profit goal from popcorn for that Scout.
6. The Council will pay the unit's profit goal per Scout out of the Scout's Jamboree popcorn account after sufficient money has been accumulated.
7. No Scout's popcorn account will have a negative balance. The Council will not lend money for disbursements.
8. Scouts who withdraw from participation in the 2010 National Scout Jamboree will have money refunded as follows:
 - A. Nonrefundable deposits will not be refunded.
 - B. Nonrefundable amounts as determined by the Council Jamboree Committee will not be refunded.
 - C. 33% of the remaining credits would be refunded to the Rocky Mountain Council as this is the part of the credit that regularly goes to the Council.
 - D. 67% of the remaining credit would go to the Scout's unit at the time of the Sale. This is the part of the credit that regularly goes to the unit.
